Excerpt: .the issues sent down for trial, did not authorize it to be used as evidence before the jury, on the trial of such issues. 4th. That it was impossible to say that the said order had no influence upon the verdict. 5th. That this difficulty was not removed by the fact that the original will, (to which the probate and affidavits, upon which it was in part founded,) was submitted by the caveators to the inspection of the jury. They not having offered the probate or affidavits in evidence or attached them to the paper, or asked the jury to inspect them, and it not appearing that the jury did so. 6th. That it was also error in the Court below, to permit one of the affidavits to be read to the Court in the presence of the jury, but that whatever effect this proceeding may have had upon the jury, prejudicial to the caveators, was removed by the granting of a prayer offered by them, by which the jury were instructed, that this affidavit was not evidence in the cause proper to be considered by them as proof of any fact therein sworn to. 7th. That the testimony of certain witnesses to the effect, that the administrator c. t. a. and caveatee, after he became such administrator, had told them that the testator had said to him in conversation, that it was not his intention, that this paper, should operate as his...
