In its preparation I have sought to utilize some of my literary work which has already received the recognition of print and pay in the Southern Methodist Quarterly Review, under the distinguished editorship of Dr. W. P. Harrison, who is in some directions the most scholarly man of his church. Other material has been gathered from my contributions to the columns of standard literary and religious magazines and journals. A very considerable part of it, however, is now published for the first time. I am greatly indebted to the appreciation of many personal friends who will take the larger part of the present edition. I wish also to tender my acknowledgments to Mrs. Mary Lanier, of Baltimore, and Charles Scribner s Sons, of New York, for the permission granted me to append to my first lecture some of the choicest poems of the lamented Sidney Lanier. My readers, I am sure, will also appreciate their kindness. About the Publisher...
