On Wednesday morning at nine o clock was our students love feast. As is always the case, it was one of the most delightful gatherings of our Commencement season. The four rooms were thrown into one by the uplifted doors, and after devotions, which were conducted by our pastor, we had a fine address by Dr. Wechsler, the Jewish Rabbi of the city, He is a broad-minded man, of deep learning, and greatly interested in the development of the negro race. Our pupils are always greatly interested in his talks. After two hours spent in the school building, and no one seemed weary, the audience went to the chapel, where the examination papers, the tabulated class work, the kindergarten work, and the work of the sewing classes, were all...
