Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Octogenial Book: Being the Report of the Celebration of the Eightieth Anniversary of the Organization of the First Presbyterian Church, Springfield, O The period of the greatest proportionate growth was during the pastorates of Dr. Thomas Fullerton and Dr. McKnight, when the annual average number received on examination, for twenty years, was a little over twenty-six. It would be a difficult task to undertake to discover the causes of this marked difference. There is this fact worth noticing, however, that the periods of exceptionally large increase, locally, are the same as those in the entire denomination, and also this: That a period of unusual activity and consequent increase, occurs with but slight variation once in every ten years. It would be very interesting and very helpful, no doubt, to make contrasts and comparisons between the early and the more recent history of the church but that is not our purpose this morning it is the rather to survey present conditions and consider what betterment is possible in the spirit, aims and methods of our work in the future. Taking the judgment of those who are most capable of judging accurately in the matter, their estimate is that our church today is in better condition than it has been for over twenty years. This is a constant stimulus to thankfulness to God. There is now, very manifestly, a spirit of unity and a general disposition to cooperate in every department of our work. We didn t have this ten years ago. When this pastorate was begun it was a risky experiment for a church with the traditions of this one. About the Publisher Forgotten Books...
