Do the teens in your life drive you crazy? Are you asking yourself where you went wrong? Parent To Parent is a warm, supportive, reaffirming book for anyone who interacts with teenagers. Linda Propper, a twenty-year middle school teacher and mother of two daughters, embarks on a hilarious romp through the stressful landscape of adolescence. Nothing soothes like humor, and this clever collection of poetry is guaranteed to reduce your driven crazy by teenagers, stress level. Ms. Propper is an astute comic observer of parent-teen interactions and will leave you laughing as you nod your head in recognition. Her poems also reflect poignant and bittersweet memories that bring the reader back in time. Ms. Propper captures the perspectives of both child and adult, making us laugh one moment and bringing us to tears the next. Parent To Parent is chock full of truth, humor and insight all wrapped up to give the reader a gift for the heart and soul. If there are teens in your life you owe it to yourself to read...
